Overview of the Center

Craftsbury Community Care Center is a level 3 residential home located in the picturesque heart of Vermont's Northeast Kingdom. Built in 1994 on eight acres in Craftsbury, it is surrounded by open fields, stately maples, evergreens and gardens. The Center accommodates 24 residents in their own spacious rooms, combining privacy and independence with the safety and security of knowing that a dedicated, caring staff member is always nearby. Numerous stimulating and engaging activities are available for residents where many dedicated volunteers from the local communities contribute their time and talents.
